God's Promise to Abram

Genesis 12:1-6; 13:2; 15:5-6; 17:5

A man named Abram lived near Babel.

God said to Abram, "Leave your country, your family, and your father's house. I will show you another land. I will make you a great country. I will bless you. I will make you a blessing to all the families of the earth."

Abram believed God's promise. He took his wife Sarah, his brother's son, and his servants and moved from there. They did not know where God would lead them. But they obeyed God.

God led them to Canaan. Abram trusted in God. God blessed Abram very much with good land, many animals, and many people.

God said to Abram, "I will make your children like the stars of heaven. You will not be able to count them." God called Abram good because he believed all that God said.

God changed his name to Abraham. Abraham means father of many countries.

Answer the questions.

1. What did God tell Abram to do?
2. What did God promise Abram?
3. What do you like about the story?
4. What don't you like about the story?
