Joseph Rises from Prison to Palace

Genesis 39:20-23; 40:4-22;
41:14-57; 42:3-25; 45:3-5

Joseph was in prison for many years. One day the Pharaoh was angry with two servants, a wine server and a baker. He put them in prison.

That night they both had dreams. In the morning they told their dreams to Joseph. Joseph told them God is the only one who can explain dreams. Joseph gave the correct meaning of their dreams. The wine server went back to work for the Pharaoh. The baker was killed.

Two years later the Pharaoh had a dream. No one in Egypt was able to give its meaning. The Pharaoh got angry. Then his wine server said, "There is a man in prison who gives the correct meaning of dreams."

The Pharaoh called Joseph from prison. Joseph said, "Your dream is from God. He will send seven good years, then seven years of famine. You need to prepare for the famine."

So the Pharaoh made Joseph ruler of Egypt. Joseph stored much food. Then seven years of famine came. Joseph saved all the people from famine.

During the famine, Joseph's brothers came to Egypt to buy food. They did not recognize Joseph. He tested them. Then he told them, "I am Joseph, your brother." They were very afraid. Joseph cried and forgave his brothers.

Then Joseph's father, brothers, wives and children all came to live in Egypt. God blessed them.
