Ruth joins with God's people

Ruth 1-4

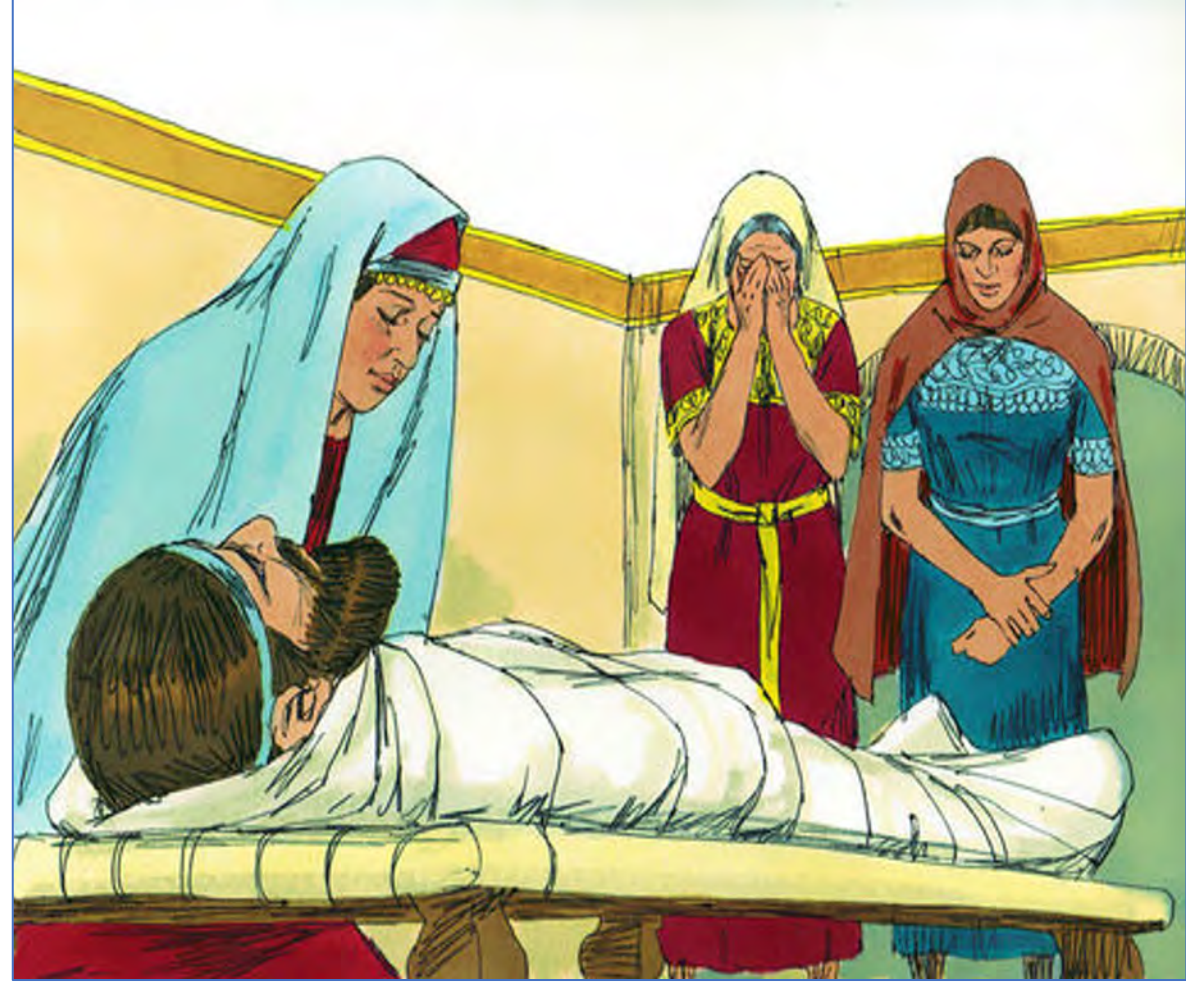

Sometimes God's people forgot him and broke his laws. Then God would send famine or war.

During one famine, Naomi, her husband and two sons moved to another country.

Many years passed. Her sons married women of that country. Then Naomi's husband and two sons died.

Naomi decided to return to Canaan. She was very unhappy. Her sons' wives (daughters-in-law) wanted to go with her. She said, "Stay here. I have nothing left for you."

One of the women returned to her father's house.

But the other, named Ruth, said, "I will not leave you. Wherever you go, I will go. Wherever you stay, I will stay. Your people will be my people, and your God, my God."

Then Naomi took Ruth and went to Canaan.

In Canaan, Ruth took care of Naomi. Ruth worked in the fields. She brought grain to Naomi for food.

Boaz was the owner of the fields. Boaz was a good man.

Even though Ruth was a foreigner, Boaz saw that she loved Naomi. He saw that she loved God. So Boaz married Ruth.

Then God gave Boaz and Ruth a son. Naomi was very happy. Their son became the grandfather of David. David was a great and good king.

2. What did Naomi's daughter-in-law, Ruth, say to her when Naomi was leaving?
3. What does it mean to be a "good man?"
