Leaving Egypt

Exodus 12:33-15:21

The Israelites left Egypt. They were happy to leave because they were no longer slaves. God made a tall cloud that guided them during the day, and a column of fire that guided them at night so that they knew where to go.

 After the Israelites left, Pharaoh and his people changed their minds and wanted the Israelites as their slaves again. God changed their minds so He could show how powerful He was against the Egyptians.

The Egyptians chased after the Israelites and the Israelites saw the Egyptians coming to get them. They were afraid because they were stuck between the Red Sea and the Egyptian army.

Moses told the Israelites to stop being afraid. God would protect them. God told Moses to tell the Israelites to move closer to the Red Sea.

The tall cloud moved from in front of the people and went to the back of the people. In this way the cloud stood between the Egyptians and the Israelites. There was light for the Israelites but there was darkness for the Egyptians.

God told Moses to point his hand towards the water. Then God made the wind split the sea in two.

The Israelites walked through the sea on dry ground. The water was like a wall on their right and on their left. The Egyptians tried to follow, but the Israelites had already crossed to the other side.

Then God told Moses to point his hand towards the water again. The Lord brought the water of the sea down on top of the Egyptians and they all drowned. But the Israelites had walked through that sea on dry land. So the Israelites began to trust the Lord and His servant Moses.

The Israelites were happy because God saved them. Now they were free and able to worship God and obey God. They were happy and sang songs to celebrate.

God told the Israelites to celebrate a festival every year called "Passover" to remember what God had done for them.

Song: Go Down Moses (Let my people go)

When Israel was in Egypt's land,
Oppressed so hard they could not stand.

The Lord told Moses what to do,
To lead the Hebrew children through.

As Israel stood by the waterside,
At God's command it did divide.

When they had reached the other shore,
They let the song of triumph soar!

Lord help us all from bondage flee,
And let us all in Christ be free!

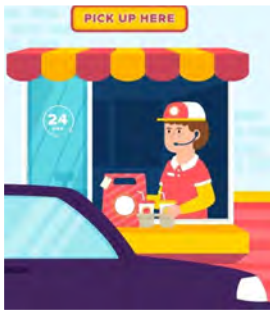

Go down Moses,
way down in Egypt's land.
Tell old Pharaoh, "Let my people go."
