God's Covenant with Israel.

Exodus Chapters 19-34

After God led the Israelites through the Red Sea, he led them through the desert to a mountain called Sinai. This was the same mountain where Moses once saw the burning bush. The people set up their tents at a place near the mountain.

God said to Moses and all the people of Israel, "You must always obey me and keep the agreement I am making with you. If you do this, you will be my own special treasure, a kingdom of priests, and a holy people."

For three days the people made themselves ready for God to come near to them. Then God came down to the top of Mount Sinai.

When he came, there was light and sound from the sky, smoke, and sounds of loud trumpets. Then Moses went up the mountain alone.

Then God made an agreement with the people. He said, "I am Yahweh, your God. It is I who saved you from being slaves in Egypt. Do not worship any other god."

“Do not make other gods and do not worship them, because I, Yahweh, must be your only God. Do not use my name in a bad way. Be sure to keep the Sabbath a special day. In other words, do all your work in six days, for the seventh day is a day for you to rest and to remember me.”

“Honor your father and your mother. Do not murder anyone. Do not sleep with someone you are not married to. Do not steal. Do not lie about your neighbor. Do not want your neighbor’s wife, his house, or anything that belongs to him.”

The people all agreed to obey the rules that God had given them. They agreed to belong to God alone and to worship only him.

God also told the Israelites to make a large tent — the Holy Tent. He told them exactly how to make this tent and what things to put in it. He told them to make a large curtain to make the tent into two rooms. God would come into the room behind the curtain and stay there. Only the high priest could go into that room where God was.

The people must also make an altar in front of the Holy Tent. Anyone who did not obey God's rules should bring an animal to that altar. A priest would then kill it and put it in the fire on the altar as a gift to God.

God said that the animal's blood would cover that person's sins. In this way, God would not see that sin any longer. That person would become "clean" to God. God chose Moses' brother, Aaron, and Aaron's family to be his priests.

God wrote these Ten Commandments on two stone tablets and gave them to Moses. God also gave the people many other laws and rules to follow. God promised to bless the people and take care of them if they obeyed these laws. But he said he would punish them if they did not obey them.

For many days, Moses stayed on top of Mount Sinai. He was talking with God. But the people got tired of waiting for him to come down the mountain. So they brought gold to Aaron and asked him to make an idol that they could worship instead of God. In this way, they sinned against God a lot.

Aaron made a gold idol in the shape of a young cow. The people began to wildly worship the god and give gifts to it! God was very angry with them because of their sin. God told Moses he wanted to kill them. But Moses asked God not to kill them. God listened to his prayer and did not kill them.

When Moses went down from Mount Sinai, he was carrying the two stone tablets on which God wrote the Ten Commandments.

When Moses saw the idol, he was so angry that he threw the tablets to the ground, and the stones broke into many pieces.

Then Moses burned the idol and ground it into dust. He threw the dust into water and made the people drink the water. God sent a plague on the people and many of them died.

Moses made new stone Tablets for the Ten Commandments in place of the ones that he broke. Then he went up the mountain again and prayed that God would forgive the people. God listened to Moses and forgave them. Moses came back down the mountain with the Ten Commandments on the new tablets. Then God led the Israelites away from Mount Sinai toward the Promised Land.
