Sin Enters the World

Genesis 3

Adam and Eve lived in the beautiful garden God made for them. They did not wear clothes, but they did not feel ashamed. They walked in the garden and talked with God.

But there was a snake in the garden that was very smart. The snake asked the woman, “Did God really tell you not to eat the fruit from any tree in the garden?”

 The woman said, "God told us we could eat the fruit of any tree except from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil. God told us, 'If you eat that fruit or even touch it, you will die.'"

The snake said to the woman, "You will not die. God just knows that as soon as you eat it, you will be like God and will understand good and evil like he does."

 The woman saw that the fruit was beautiful and looked delicious. She also wanted to be wise, so she took some of the fruit and ate it. Then she gave some to her husband, who was with her, and he ate it too.

Suddenly, they realized they were naked. They tried to cover their bodies by sewing leaves together to make clothes.

Then the man and his wife heard the sound of God walking through the garden. They both hid from God. Then God called to the man, "Where are you?"

Adam said, "I heard you walking in the garden, and I was afraid. I was naked. So I hid."

Then God asked, "Who told you that you were naked? Did you eat the fruit I told you not to eat?"

The man answered, "You gave me this woman, and she gave me the fruit."

Then God asked the woman, "What have you done?"
The woman said, "The snake tricked me."

So God said to the snake, "You are cursed! You will crawl on your belly and eat soil. You and the woman will hate each other, and your children and her children will hate each other, too. You will bite her child's foot, but he will crush your head."

God then said to the woman, “When you give birth to children, you will have a lot of pain. You will want your husband very much, but he will rule over you.”

God said to the man, "You listened to your wife and ate the fruit. Now the ground is cursed, and you will need to work hard to grow food. Then you will die, and your body will return to soil."

The man named his wife Eve, which means "life-giver," because she would become the mother of all people. And God dressed Adam and Eve with animal skins.

Then God said, “Now that the people have become like us by knowing good and evil, they must not be allowed to eat the fruit of the tree of life and live forever.”

So God made Adam and Eve leave the garden. God put powerful angels at the entrance to the garden to keep anyone from eating the fruit of the tree of life.

Answer the questions.

- Read the next lesson’s Bible verses: Genesis 6:8 and Genesis 7:1 in your language.

7A. Read and answer the questions.

Hello, my name is Hannah. I will be your tour guide for today. I would like to welcome everyone to Paris! Before we begin today's trip, please place your bags in a safe place. Last year, a young woman lost her wallet, so I want to make sure that everyone has their things before we start on the trip.

Today, we are going to the Eiffel Tower. When we get to the Tower, we need everyone to show their ID cards. Please make sure you have your passports or other forms of ID with you. Also please put your phones on silent so they don't ring during the tour. Our trip will take about 4 hours by bus, so you can sleep, read, or talk during our bus ride. Once again, I'm Hannah and I want to welcome you to Paris. Enjoy the ride!

7B. Answer the questions.

- A. What is the tour guide's name?
- B. What does the tour guide do before the trip?
- C. What city are they visiting?
- D. How can they enter the Eiffel Tower?
- E. What is one country YOU want to visit?
- F. Why do you want to go to that country?

8. What do you need to pack?

You are invited to visit a friend for a week. Write 10 sentences about the things you need to pack. Example: I need to pack my toothbrush.
