The Prophets

1 Kings 18:17-46; 2 Kings 5:1-16;
Jeremiah 38:1-13

God always sent His prophets to the Israelites. The prophets heard messages from God and then told them to the people.

Elijah was a prophet when Ahab was king of Israel. Ahab was a bad man. He tried to make the people serve a false god named Baal, so Elijah told King Ahab that God was going to teach a lesson to the people. Elijah said, "There will be no rain or dew in the country of Israel until I say it will rain again." This made Ahab so angry that he decided to kill Elijah.

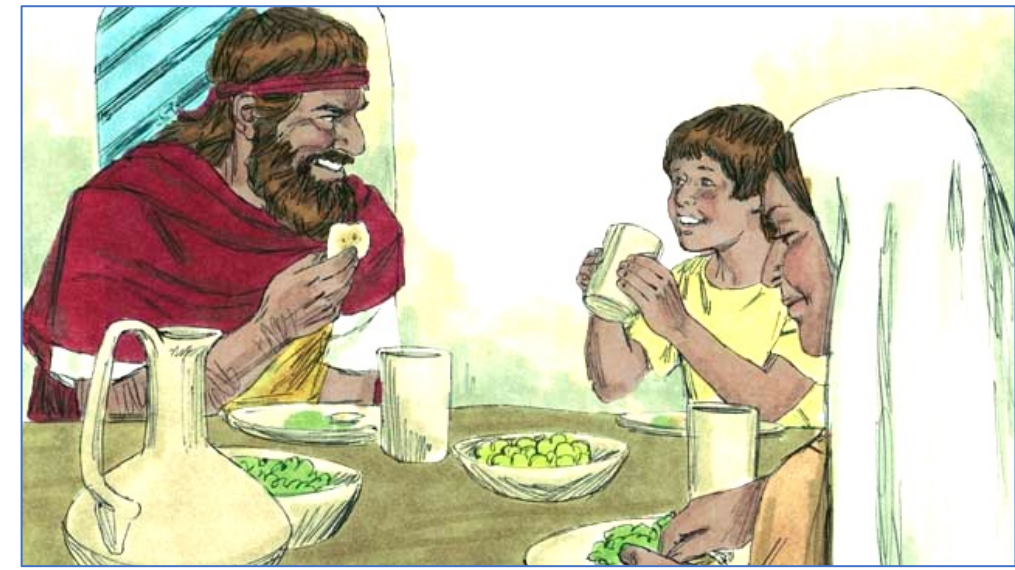

So God told Elijah to go into the wilderness to hide from Ahab. When Elijah went where God told him, he found a stream. Every morning and every evening, birds brought Elijah bread and meat.

During this time, Ahab and his army looked for Elijah, but they could not find him.

Because there was no rain, after some time the stream dried up, so Elijah went to a nation close by. He met a poor widow and her son who had almost run out of food because there was no more food on the farms.

Elijah asked her for food. She gave him something to eat and continued giving him food. God provided for her and her son because of this, so her jar of flour and her bottle of oil never became empty. They had food when everyone else did not. They had food during the whole famine. Elijah stayed there for about three years.

After three and a half years, God told Elijah that he would make it rain again. He told Elijah to return to the kingdom of Israel and speak with Ahab.

Elijah obeyed and went to Ahab. When Ahab saw him, he said, "There you are, you troublemaker!" Elijah replied to him, "It is you who are the troublemaker! You have stopped obeying Yahweh. He is the true God, but you are worshiping Baal. Now you must bring all the people of the kingdom of Israel to Mount Carmel." So all the people of Israel went to Mount Carmel. The prophets who said they spoke messages for Baal also came. There were 450 of them.

Elijah said to the people, "How long will you keep changing your mind? If Yahweh is God, worship him! But if Baal is God, worship him!" Then Elijah said to Baal's prophets, "Kill a bull, cut the meat into pieces, and put the meat on wood, but do not light the fire. I will do the same, and I will put the meat on a different altar. Then if God sends fire on the altar, you will know that he is the real God."

So the prophets of Baal prepared a sacrifice, but did not light the fire. Then the prophets of Baal prayed to Baal, "Hear us, Baal!" All day long they prayed and shouted and even cut themselves with knives, but Baal did not answer, and he did not send any fire.

They finally stopped praying. Then Elijah put the meat of another bull on an altar for God. He told the people to pour 12 huge pots of water on the sacrifice until everything, the meat, the wood, and even the ground around the altar was completely wet. Then Elijah prayed, "Yahweh, God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, show us today that you are the God of Israel and that I am your servant. Answer me so that these people will know that you are the true God."

Immediately, fire fell from the sky. It burned up the meat, the wood, the rocks, the soil, and dried up the water that was around the altar.

When the people saw this, they bowed down to the ground and said, "Yahweh is God! Yahweh is God!" Then Elijah said, "Do not let any of the prophets of Baal run away!" So the people caught the prophets of Baal and took them away from there and killed them.

Then Elijah said to King Ahab, "Return immediately to your home, because the rain is coming." Soon the sky became very dark, and a heavy rain began to fall. Yahweh was sending the rain. This also showed that he is the true God.

When Elijah finished his work, God chose a man named Elisha to be his prophet. God did many miracles through Elisha. One of the miracles happened to Naaman. He was the leader of an enemy army, and he had a bad skin disease.

Naaman heard about Elisha, so he went to Elisha and asked him to heal him. Elisha told Naaman to go to the Jordan River and wash himself in the water seven times. Naaman became very angry. He did not want to do this because it seemed foolish.

But later, Naaman changed his mind and decided to obey. He went to the Jordan River and washed himself seven times in the water. When he came up from the water the last time, God healed his skin. So Naaman believed in God.

God also sent many other prophets to the people of Israel. The prophets told the people to stop worshiping false gods and to be fair with each other and have mercy on one another. The prophets always warned the people to stop doing bad things and obey God instead. When the people did not obey, God judged them and punished them.

Most of the time, the people did not obey God. They often treated the prophets badly and sometimes even killed them.

Once, they put the prophet Jeremiah into a muddy well and left him there to die. He went down into the mud at the bottom of the well. Later, the king had mercy on him and ordered his servants to pull Jeremiah out of the well before he died.

The prophets continued to speak for God even though the people did not like them. They told the people that God would destroy them if they did not return to him. They also reminded the people that God promised to send them the Messiah.

The Pros and Cons of Power Appliances

Around the world, many people use power appliances at home and work. These tools can make life easier by doing work faster. Electric fans, toasters, sewing machines, and microwaves are very popular because people like to get things done fast.

It's easy to push a button and wash your laundry or dishes. You can push a button and dry your hair, hands or clothes quickly. Some people even use an electric toothbrush to clean their teeth. These appliances are also helpful for some people with disabilities to use because it helps them with daily tasks.

However, there are also problems with power appliances: They are expensive to buy, they need electricity, and they often break. When they break, you have to fix them or buy new ones. When the electricity fails, in a blackout or power outage, most power appliances do not work.

Some people say it is better to do things the old ways. You can cook food or heat your house with a fire. You can use a paper fan to cool off. You can wash clothes and dishes by hand. The work is harder, but you don't need power appliances.

Everyone has a different opinion. What do you think?

7C. Answer the questions.

1. Why do many people like power appliances?
2. What are some problems with them?
3. What happens when the electricity fails?
4. Do you prefer to wash, dry, and sew clothes by hand or with appliances?
5. Do you prefer a paper fan or electric fan? Why?
6. Do you like to use fire for cooking and heat? Why?
7. Which appliances do you use?
